Pack the Courts Statement on Rep. Seth Moulton's Comments about Court Expansion

San Francisco, CA -- Pack the Courts Campaign Manager Kate Kendell released the following statement about Rep. Seth Moulton's comment yesterday that court packing should be "on the table" in recognition of the grave threat posed by the current Court. Moulton said, "You don't show up to a gun fight with a knife. You try to show up with a rocket."

Kendell stated:

"The Republican Senate degraded the judiciary into a nakedly partisan arm of corporate interests and far-right ideology, which is why the Supreme Court dismantled the Voting Rights Act, enabled unlimited dark money to flood our political system, and allowed hyper-partisan gerrymandering to disenfranchise millions of voters.

"Rep. Moulton is correct and former Attorney General Holder was correct: it is pure folly to imagine that Justice Kavanaugh and his colleagues will allow Congress to restore democracy. Court packing is the cornerstone of any attempt to un-rig the system, and that is why five presidential candidates have spoken in support of the idea, and why it will remain a central theme in the 2020 campaign."
